From the President's Pen

Welcome back, everyone, to the start of a new year at Nanaimo Quilters' Guild. I'm sure the summer heat and smoke haze left us all feeling a bit drained and foggy through August, but now that September has arrived we can get ready to quilt again. There's nothing like the bright, sunny days and the crisp, cozy nights of autumn to make our thoughts turn to new quilt patterns and fabrics we want to try working with. I for one have more sewing plans than I will ever have time to complete!

As you all know, we are now in a 'show year'. This means there is much planning and organizing to do to get us ready to put on a quilt show that we can all be proud of. But, first things first. We can't have a quilt show without quilts, so I hope you are all thinking of the quilts you will construct, finish and enter in our Material Magic show. This is a non-juried show and a perfect time to enter your first quilt, if you haven't done this before. It's great fun and you'll definitely have the support of your Guild peers. We all love to see the amazing variety, styles and colours of quilts that our Guild members have been making since the last show.

The quilt show, of course, is just a part of what we will be up to as a Guild this year. We'll start off in September with a show and share of last year's mystery quilt, and I can tell you we are going to see some very different looks in this quilt! I have been working away on mine for the past couple of weeks, determined to have it finished for the meeting, and hope others are doing the same.

The Program Committee has been busy putting together sessions that will keep us entertained and learning new things, which is what we all come to Guild for, besides visiting with our quilting friends of course! We'll learn about fabrics from far away, the popular use of rulers in quilting, and will have some buy and sell fun at a garage sale, to name a few. We'll do this and more while we work on our show quilts, and plan what we hope will be our best show yet!

So, yes, it's September again, time to get those sewing machines whirring and mark your calendar with our first meeting date this year, September 19th.

Things to remember for the meetings include your show and share quilts of all shapes and sizes, donation quilts and placemats, coins for raffle tickets, library books to exchange, a coffee cup for break time, snacks if it's your turn (last names starting with A and B in September), and food bank donations. Also, please feel free to bring any handwork you would like to work on during the meeting.

I hope you all had a lovely summer and I look forward to seeing your smiling faces soon. Your President, Christine Hustins

Library

Another exciting year is about to begin. Hope everyone had a great summer! The heat forced some of us to stay indoors to give us lots of quilting time. Hope your time was productive.

The Nanaimo Lakes fire behind our place gave us a bit of a reality check. Even though we weren't under any alerts, it was close enough for us to think about what items we would load up in case of an evacuation order. Animals, meds, important papers, sewing machines?, UFO's? computer stuff?.... and in the middle of the night, it hit me.....have to take all those guild library borrowers cards!!! Definitely would not want to ever have to redo all those 500 plus cards!!!

Please bring all your library materials back to the September meeting.

2018/2019 Nanaimo Quilters' Guild Program

Please see page 11 and 12 in this newsletter for the complete year's calendar and workshop registration

Welcome from your 2018/19 Program Committee. We are: Mary Abbott (Chair), Sandra Radley, Kathleen Kane, Joy Hegland, Maggie Pickard and Georgie Bowen.

The Textiles of Bali (Barb Alexander), Quilting with Rulers (Snip and Stitch), Garage Sale, Trunk Show (Val Ursalak), Underground Railway Secret Quit Code (Gerrie Green)

Workshops: There are four workshops planned this year.

October 20: Sliced Circles with Ionne McCauley

website: <https://www.ionnequilts.com>

Circles are among the most satisfying shapes to work with and the combination of circles and straight lines is exciting. Play with great, favourite fabrics and create a wall hanging sized art quilt top, while you learn about shapes and lines and designs. Quilting options are discussed for your finished project.

November 17: Free Motion Quilting with Vicki Dods

Morning: Enjoy a half-day session of free motion quilting. Become familiar with several all over designs as well as repetitive patterns useful for borders and sashings. The session is aimed at beginning level free motion quilters.

Afternoon: Feather play is the theme of the afternoon session. Learn various methods to create feather motifs. Then explore all over designs, shape fillers, border patterns and feathers with graceful, curving spines. This session would suit those who have some experience with free motion work. Members are welcome to attend one or both of the workshops.

NQG Box 943 Nanaimo BC V9R 5N2

February 23, 2019: Felting with Nancy Wesley

website: www.nancdesigns.ca

Spend four hours of the day learning needle felting techniques with Nancy. Your finished project will be an 8 inch bunny rabbit.

The remainder of the day is devoted to playing with felting. Materials will be provided and you can use your creativity to create another critter or to try your hand at a scene.

March 23, 2019
Surprise Step by Step: Guess Who's Coming to Dinner?

Complete a mystery quilt in one class!

The project will be a table runner and coaches will be available to offer assistance. This promises to be a fun day. Four fabrics are required and you will receive pre cutting instructions prior to class.

OTHER EVENTS

All Year Long: Mystery Quilt: Don't miss out on this year's mystery quilt experience. Your registration fee includes the pattern and at each Guild meeting you will receive the next step in creating Mystery on the 'Oriental' Express. The final product is a lap quilt or wall hanging measuring 55.5" square before borders. Three fabrics are required: a light (2 yards), medium (1 yard) and dark or bright (1 ¾ yards), plus binding (3/4- 1 yard) and binding (2 yards). Sorry about "yards" but it is a US pattern. If you wish to make a larger quilt (55.5" x 82") purchase 1.5 times the fabric required and make 1.5 times the blocks. Borders and binding may be purchased after the mystery has been solved but more of the same fabrics may not be available at that time.

Mini UFOs: Set aside December 1 or April 13 for completing Christmas projects or putting the final touches on your Quilt Show entry. Or, if you are really organized, start something new. Whatever you choose to do enjoy quilting with friends and bring something to share for a pot luck lunch.

Garage Sale: February 13. One person's trash is someone else's treasure. Rent a table with a friend and move along your no longer needed quilting supplies. Number of tables will be limited. Whether you are a seller or a shopper this will be a fun day.

All Year Long: Mystery Quilt by A Little Crispy

September is the Show & Tell of your completed Quilt (or Quilt Top). We can't wait to see them!!!

The winners of the June monthly participation prizes were: Daytime: Sue Artuso, Evening: Carole Phinney

Any questions, contact Becky Keizer kiddkeizer@shaw.ca

Membership

If you did not renew your membership in the spring, you can do so at our September meeting.

Our next Quilt Show will be in 2019. If you want to enter the Quilt Show you must be a fully paid member as of September 2018. This means that you must renew or join, and fully pay your dues, no later than our meeting on September 19, 2018.

The membership renewal form is in the newsletter and on the Guild website. You can print the form and fill it in before the meeting and attach your payment; cheque or cash. Credit card payment will also be available at the meetings.

The forms will be processed during the meeting. Completed receipts and membership cards can be picked up at the membership table either at coffee break or after the meeting.

The registration fee is $30.00. If you want your newsletter mailed there is an additional charge of $15.00.

If you are 80 years and older at the time of registration you are entitled to Honorary Member status. Membership dues are waved, but you still need to fill out a registration form.

Laura Beswick, Membership

Nominations

Thank you to those members who are stepping down from their current positions. Hopefully, looking back, you have some good memories.

Thank you those members who have volunteered for the coming Guild year. You have made my Nominations role a lot easier than I thought it would be. Hopefully you enjoyed your hugs and your standing ovation...well-earned and very well deserved. Once again, THANK YOU.

Nanaimo 2018/2019 Guild Challenge

Hello members. This years Challenge quilts will be hung at our guild show next year. The voting will be done by all the attendees at the show, both members and public.

Per usual the Challenge is shrouded in mystery, no one will know what the theme is, or the parameters are, until they purchase a kit. No one will know the quilt's maker until the reveal part way through the show.

Along with ribbons for first, second and third, there will be prizes.

To purchase a kit you must be a paid up member for the 2018-2019 year. There is a limited amount of kits available, once they are sold out there is no more. Some kits will be held for sale at the evening meeting.

Please bring $3.00 to purchase the kit, exact change would be amazing.

If you have no idea what a Challenge is, please come and see us at the Challenge table so we can fill you in.

Quilt Bee January 26, 2019

Hope everyone had a great summer and were able to get lots of projects finished. We're here to let you know that the guild annual Quilt Bee is scheduled for Saturday, January 26, 2019, at Oliver Woods; please mark your calendars.

For you new folks, the guild gets together once a year to make quilts for Haven House, our local women and children's shelter. Sadly, the need never seems to diminish. Our committee will supply most of the backing and batting for these quilts and the members are asked to provide the fabric for the tops (and the skill, time and effort to put it all together). However, we will have some kits available at the September guild meetings as well as some simple but effective patterns.

There's lots more information regarding the "Bee" coming in our next few newsletters and we, your committee members, are always available to answer your questions.

See you in September! Bonnie Dimitry, Marlene Jones, Heather Cowan, and Arlene Sanders

CQA Quilting Challenge for June 2019

Quilting Goes Viral is the theme. All entries must follow the guidelines at canadianquilter.com/member-guild-challenge-2019/. Each individual Member Guild may select one winner only from their Guild's membership, on or before April 30, 2019 for entry into this challenge.

Guilds wishing to enter the Challenge must advise of their intent via email to Bonnie Rankin, rankinbon@gmail.com by Feb 1, 2019, so that space allocation can be arranged.

All mini quilts must be received by May 15 – May 25, 2019

Use Pantone colour #18 ultraviolet or equivalent Kona colour, Bright Periwinkle, along with up to two (2) additional colours on the face of your quilt. The quilt perimeter is to be no larger than 72". The quilt must be finished with binding, facings or enveloped pillow case style style. Please ensure there is a hanging sleeve, at least 3" wide for display purposes, and a label stating the quilt's name and your name. The chosen entry from each Guild must have the completed Guild entry form included when the quilt is shipped. Barbara Clement

Guild Newsletter Advertisers

The NQG is pleased to welcome Gala Fabrics in Victoria and Hamels Fabrics in Chilliwack to our growing list of newsletter advertisers.

We thank our returning advertisers also, and encourage our quilters to support our local, and not so local, quilting stores and suppliers. Their support of our Guild – through advertising in our newsletters – is very much appreciated. Here's to a banner ad year!

Food Bank

Welcome back to our new Guild year. If your summer was as busy and wonderful as ours, I am sure you are getting ready to dust off your machine and clear your mind for new quilting projects ahead.

As young needy families and disadvantaged seniors move into September, their costs increase and often money for nutritious food is not available in their budgets. We will include an envelope for cash donations this month. For every dollar that Loaves and Fishes collects, they are able to convert to $5.98 worth of groceries.

Please make sure you check the expiry date on your donations. Also, donate full packages of product, nothing that has been taken from an already open box. This is a great month for case lot sales.

Thank you for your continued generous donations. Vicki Dunsmuir, Barb Kerfoot, Germaine Batchelor

Raffles

Joanne, Linda and Lois are ready to take your money at the afternoon meeting and Sandy and Sharon are ready for the evening meeting. Please try and bring change for the tickets. They are still $1.00 each for the raffles and $1.00 each for the Mystery Fabric. The Mystery fabric is 1 m of fabric and the proceeds go to the NQG scholarship for a grade 12 student.

We also have a draw for a fat quarter for those quilters participating in the Show and Share at each meeting. If you have any ideas of the kind of prizes you would like to win, please email me at cphinney@telus.net. We also accept any donations of quilty things that would make great prizes. Looking forward to seeing your smiling faces as you line up to buy your tickets. Carole Phinney, Raffle chairperson

Block of the Month

Hello everyone! I hope you had a wonderful summer. Becky and I have come up with 8 interesting blocks for the membership year and will be handing out fabric for a Halloween Block and for a Valentine's Day block.

In September you can pick up our Halloween fabric for the block due in October. With the next block we are going modern with a flying geese block from colorgirlquilts.com with one side grey, the other side white with quilter's choice of geese colour in the middle. Next we'll be doing Bonnie Hunter's Pineapple Blossom using fall colours. No block due in December and in January we hand out the Valentine's Day fabric. For a fun fruit block we will be doing a pieced Strawberry block. For those who like butterflies and are willing to try another Y seam we are going retro with www.mccallsquilting.com's Butterfly block owned by Janet Lyles. It was originally published in 1936. We'll be going with a spring palette for the butterflies with a white background. And lastly we'll be doing a block Becky designed for a Canadian Flag block. I am so looking forward to seeing what you do with the blocks.

As always each block turned in gets a chance to win all the blocks turned in so if you may make as many blocks as you'd like. If you win and get the quilt done up to the binding for the following meeting you get a prize.

Best wishes and see you in September.

Donation Quilts

Welcome back! Pat Clements and I are ready for another year. We will have bamboo and cotton batting (cut to 45" x 60"), backing fabric and labels available at September's meeting. If you require a different size of batting, please let us know.

We received two generous donations this summer of backing fabric. We are very grateful to Ms. MacDonald and Maureen Evans. In June, Pat and I donated 101 quilts to the local community on behalf of the Guild. What an accomplishment! Please stop by the bulletin board in September and read the thank you notes received from those local organizations.

We have a binder available at each meeting that describes these groups and you can request where you wish your quilt to be donated. Pat and I thank you for a very successful year, and we're looking forward to this one.

History Committee

Many thanks to our Guild members that have provided photographs, binders, etc. to help up with the Guild history. We really appreciate the help.

We ask that if anyone is cleaning out their sewing room and come across items that relate to the Guild history – we would love to take anything unwanted – photographs, memorabilia, newspaper clippings, etc.

If donating photographs, please help us by putting names to all the participants in the photo (names on the back of the photo or spare paper) – this is a tremendous help to us.

We are still working on updating the Honorary Members information – trying to obtain photographs and addresses. We need photographs for: Margaret Creighton, Eileen Gilmore, Doreen Leigh, Valerie Stone, Lorraine Walker, Bobbi Webster, Trudi Wilson, and Kay Zbayovsky. If anyone knows where to obtain photos (or has a photo) of any one of these ladies please contact me or send me a photo.

We continue to work on “In Memory” records of members (past and present) that have passed away. We would appreciate any information that may help us to remember them.
