From the President's Pen

October certainly gave us a Fall month to remember this year. Most days were glorious, sunny yet crisp and beautiful with the sharp contrasts of fall colour everywhere we looked. I always feel inspired to get back to more sewing at this time of year. What about you? How are your plans and projects coming along? I think I am making a little progress....a box was emptied this summer and it hasn't been refilled so I'm calling that success! Don't forget to bring the items you finish to guild meetings to show us. Show and share is definitely a favourite part of the meetings for most of us! We love to see what other quilters are up to, and we like to hear how and why we each do things in the ways that we do.

We had a fun and informative time at the October meetings with Barb Alexander teaching us about the makings of Bali batik fabrics. And now we know the difference between hand dyed and batik fabric....good to know. I have to admit, I was one of those calling them all 'batiks'. Barb passed around some interesting tools used in the batik making process, and also some batik fabrics that were simply gorgeous! I don't think I was the only one wishing I could take a piece home.

At the November meeting, Program will be a little shorter, meaning we should be able to have a longer coffee break to browse the library and do a little shopping. Our presenter that day will be Snip & Stitch, showing us how to quilt with rulers, something many of us haven't yet tried.

I hope you've all been enjoying the library's extensive collection of quilt related books and magazines. The Library Committee keeps us current by annually acquiring books and magazines on the latest tips and techniques for us to try in our piecing and quilting. The library and the guild both continue to change as we all learn and grow as quilters. And don't forget that there is a list by author and one by title, of the books in our library. If you are looking for something specific you can search for it on the list to be found on the Members Only page of the guild website.

November is retreat time for many members of our guild, and this year will be no exception. I wish you all a good time and a relaxing time at your retreats this year. We'll look forward to some good tales of fun and lots of show and share at the November guild meeting.

For those who are new to the guild, you'll want to note that we don't have a regular guild meeting in December. Instead we have a potluck dinner evening at the curling club, with fun, food and laughs for us all. The potluck this year will be on December 12th so mark your calendar and plan to come out for some fun.

And that's all I have for this month. Thank you all for being part of our big quilting family and for all the things you do to make our guild successful.

Your President, Christine Hustins

New! Now you can submit photos of your quilts to our Facebook and Instagram sites. Just look for Nanaimo Quilters' Guild on both platforms.

Library

We can't believe the November 21 meeting is the last 2018 library time.

All materials checked out in November will be due at the January, 2019 meeting. Check out lots just in case we get "snowed in". In the event of a bad weather meeting cancellation, library materials will not be due until the March 2019 meeting! (February is a no-library month due to the Garage Sale) The Library Team

2018/2019 Nanaimo Quilters' Guild Program

November Program: Quilting with Rulers is our topic for November's program. Julie and Cathy from Snip and Stitch will show us what can be accomplished using rulers. They will be selling rulers and other goodies during the break so come prepared to shop.

Thank you to Barb Alexander for her presentation on Fabrics of Bali in October. I think we all learned something about the story behind the fabrics we love. Thanks also to Greta Simmons for finding Barb for us. (see photo at right)

Kylah Shay, Heather Cowan, Dana Roncin, Lija Bane and Janet Knecht won the prizes Barb generously donated.

Mystery Quilt: We now have 36 participants. Clarification of the Mystery Quilt process:

- You must pick up your next step for the quilt from Norma Franks at the placemat table each month. Steps cannot be emailed.
- You must bring the previous month step completed to the following meeting to be able to participate in the monthly prize draw.

Mickey Lemmon won the monthly prize for the Mystery Quilt.

Sliced Circles Workshop October 20: A great time was had by all at Ionne McCauley's workshop. Thanks to Ionne for a terrific day. Thanks to Sandra Radley and Maggie Pickard for serving as angels and looking after us so well. (see photo below)

Workshops: In order to fill our workshops, space will be open to non-guild members two months prior to the workshop.

November 17: Free Motion Quilting with Vicki Dods

This popular workshop is full! Thanks in advance to Vicki for inspiring us.

Mini UFOs December 1 and April 13: A few spaces are still available.

February 23, 2019: Felting with Nancy Wesley

We need 8 more participants for this workshop to run. Please sign up at the November meeting if you are interested. website: www.nancdesigns.ca

March 23, 2019 Surprise Step by Step: Guess Who's Coming to Dinner? Lots of space here. Join us in creating a surprise table runner.

Garage Sale: February 13. Only one table remaining!

Left: Thanks to Barb Alexander for her presentation on the Fabrics of Bali at our October 15 meeting, and her six draw prizes.

Right: Only 8 more spots in the February 23 Felting workshop with Nancy Wesley. You can make this adorable bunny!

Below: Results of the October 20 Sliced Circles workshop.

Quilt Bee January 26, 2019

Thanks to all members who signed up for the annual quilt Bee and to those who signed out kits, backing fabric and batting. We still have half of the spaces left for teams at the "Bee" but they do go quickly, so make sure to put your name down for this fun event at the November meeting. We'll be giving more information about the Bee in the next few newsletters.

We've had a few questions regarding donation and Bee quilts - there seems to be a bit of confusion. The Quilt Bee quilts all go to Haven House, Nanaimo's local women's shelter. The other quilts donated to the guild go to a whole host of charitable organizations; the full list of these is published on the website (lower left hand area of the home page) by the donation quilts committee.

These are run by two different committees and each have their own budget. So just to keep everything straight, if you signed out kits, backing fabric and/or batting, we ask you to return your completed quilts to the appropriate committee.

Should you have questions, please see one of the committee members for answers.

Bonnie Dimitry, Marlene Jones, Heather Cowan, and Arlene Sanders

Membership

The Membership Committee processed 11 membership forms at the October meetings. Three new members registered in October. Please welcome to our Guild Carole Playford, Mary Slusarchuk, and Ruth Stewart.

The membership list for 2018/2019 will soon be on our website in the password protected members only page. Only those who agreed to have their personal information on the membership list will be listed.

We currently have 180 registered members for the 2018-2019 term. 19 of these are new members and 22 are Honorary members.

If you have not yet renewed, you can still do this at any meeting. Please drop by the membership table to get a registration form and your 2018/2019 membership card. There are benefits to membership!

Laura Beswick, Membership

CQA

The material kit for the Trend Tex Challenge is now available for members. Non members you will be able to purchase the kit after November 1. The challenge is to be a wall hanging, perimeter no larger than 120". For more information please go to the CQA website, look under the news category.

Quilt Show 2019 Update

All the committee leads and assistants are now filled. Thank you so much to everyone who has stepped forward to help with these positions. Philippa has sold all 64 of her challenge kits!! The completed quilts are due at the May meeting.

There will be a Quilt Show table at every meeting until March to help you with questions or assistance with filling in your Call to Entry form, the Rules to Play By or any other concerns. We will also accept completed Call to Entry forms.

Raffles will have a table at every meeting starting in February.

Signup sheets for all areas that require your assistance will be on display starting in January. Remember, every member that is able, is to help the minimum of 2 hours per day.

Presentations: January – overview of the committees; February – Boutique and Raffles, March – Raffles.

Caroll Rumo Quilt Show Committee Chair

2019 Call to Entry Categories

Past Presidents' Awards

There are two Past Presidents Awards for a bed size quilt, minimum size 60" x 80", one for a hand quilted work and one for a hand guided machine quilted work. The entry must be made entirely by one person. These are voted on by our Past Presidents only but any member may submit an entry.

First Time Entry

All guild members submitting a First Time Entry will have completed a Call To Entry Form for each of their entries and will have prioritized them a 1, 2, 3 etc. Each such member will have their name and first choice entered ONCE ONLY FOR THE DRAW. The Draw Winner will receive a ribbon for her #1 entry and a collection of fat quarters. Almost 30 members entered a quilt for the 2016 Show. Remember, your most recent quilt is your best-to-date and your personal ribbon winner.

Judith McLaughlin, Chair, Ballot Committee

Are You Tired of Making Quilts?

Are you thinking of sewing some small projects to use up your stash? Maybe you are thinking of sewing up some gifts for Christmas. Did you sew up too many tote bags than needed from that new pattern? Wondering what to do with the table runner you just finished that doesn't go with your new colour scheme? And what are you going to do with that predominate pink baby quilt after the expectant mother had twin boys? No idea?

Well, the BOUTIQUE COMMITTEE would like to let you know that there will be a Boutique area at our upcoming Quilt Show in June where you could place these and other items up for sale. Most sewn and quilted items are welcome – some restrictions do apply, for example no knitting, etc. and there is a consignment fee of 10% that goes to the Guild.

Interested? For more information or to register in advance contact the Quilt Show Boutique Committee members OR Kathy at kadrica@shaw.ca. Marsha Whitmee 250.753.0343

Placemats

We had 22 placemats and 13 tea cozies turned in at the September meetings and 23 placemats were received in October. Thank you so much.

We donated 54 placemats on Oct 17th to the non-profit charity "Good Cents for Change" – for a fundraiser to help pay for tailoring classes, sewing machines, fabric and supplies for a group of young women in Zambia. We did this last year as well.

This leaves us with 134 placemats and 56 tea cozies in stock. So PLEASE keep on making those placemats so we have lots to donate to our Meals on Wheels in Ladysmith and Nanaimo and also the Salvation Army this December. Remember we have to hold about 80 placemats back for our Quilt Show in June.

Thank you all so much for your wonderful support of this program. Your placemats are all so beautiful!

Heather, Norma, and Maureen*

Donation Quilts

At the October guild meetings 20 quilts and one wheelchair quilt were collected.

Cotton batting cut at 45" x 60" is available. If you require a different size contact Pat at patclements@shaw.ca. Backing and labels are also available at each meeting.

There is one more meeting to collect quilts for distribution in early December. The guild website has good information on donation quilts. It lists where the quilts go as well guidelines for sizes. Wheelchair quilts are always welcome.

Thank you to all the talented quilters who generously give their time and fabric to comfort others in the community.

NQG Show 2019

Some Rules to Play By:

1. You must be a member in good standing of the Nanaimo Quilters' Guild as of September 30, 2018.
2. Call to Entry forms are due no later than March 20, 2019. In order to enter, you must complete both pages of the "Call to Entry" form, including your "story" (maximum 75 words) on the back of the first page. As well, you must complete the second page with a coloured photo or sketch of your entry. The forms will be collected at the Show table at each regular meeting from October 2018 to March 2019. Early entry is encouraged. Quilt need not be finished before form is submitted.
3. Finished quilts are due to be delivered to the Depot Captains no later than May 30. Your Depot Captain will contact you approximately 2 weeks prior to the Quilt Show to arrange a drop-off time for your project.
4. Use one entry form for each item. Please PRIORITIZE your projects using the designated line on both pages because we may not be able to display all projects.
5. Each submission must have an identifying label attached to the back of the project with quilt name, your name and phone number.
6. All quilts must have a 3" wide hanging sleeve attached across the width of the top of the quilt.
7. No project may be submitted that has been shown in a previous Nanaimo Quilt Show.
8. This year we will repeat the category, First Show Entry, for those who have never entered a quilt in a Nanaimo Quilt Show. Each eligible entrant will receive a participation ribbon. A prize will be awarded to the winner who will be selected by a random draw.
9. Your project must adhere to the size you indicate on the form. The Hanging Committee will organize the layout of the Quilt Show based on the information you submit. If you find the size of the finished item will be larger or smaller than stated on the form, please inform the call to entry committee.
10. Insurance – The Nanaimo Quilt Guild cannot be held responsible for loss or damage to your entry. Please ensure your entry is covered by your homeowner's insurance.
11. Pick up will be 2:30 – 3:30 Sunday June 9, 2019. No provision will be made for early pick-up. Only the Takedown Committee will be allowed on the show floor after 12:30 on Sunday, June 9th. In order to claim your items you must present the receipt you receive from your Depot Captain. If you are unable to pick up your items yourself, please inform your depot captain of the name and phone number of your delegate. Make sure your delegate has all of your receipts.
12. Any questions should be addressed to Val Ansell at 250-758-1185 or thornasite@gmail.com.
13. Copyright Rules must be followed.

Please use the 2019 Show Call to Entry forms.
