Where you see blue underlined lettering in the online version of the newsletter, it means that you can put your cursor on the blue lettering and click the word or words, and you'll be taken to the website associated with the blue lettering. Best viewed in Google Chrome (some links may not work on a Mac)

Guild Website

The Members Only section password for our website will remain the same for the foreseeable future (password is printed on the back of your membership card) If you have something of interest for our Guild web site, please send it to Sue Creba at smcreba@gmail.com

Presidents' Pen

Thanks to all of you who have taken the time to respond to our inquiry about your interest in returning to in-person meetings. If you haven't yet done so, please do let us know your thoughts. Once the results are tallied and the executive has reviewed them, we'll advise members via an email on the plan for the November meeting and the guild website will be updated.

While we understand that members will be ready to return to meeting in-person at differing times, our goal is to provide as many options as possible for participation within a reasonable set of costs.

Thanks also to all of those who are renewing their memberships, please keep those rolling in! We depend on your membership to deliver programs and services both online and in person.

It wouldn't be November without taking a moment of pause to reflect and thank those in our communities who have served and continue to serve Canada at home and around the world through the armed forces. Many of you have made Quilts of Valor and perhaps know of veterans or serving members who have received a quilt through this wonderful program. To find out more about this organization, check out the Quilts of Valour website at www.quiltsofvalour.ca

Happy Stitching, Co-Presidents Terri Askham & Judi McLaughlin

2021-2022 Guild Program

I hope everyone enjoyed the great viewing and inspiration on the Global Quilt Connection's 'Sampler Platter' last month as well as their four "Meet the Teacher" videos and associated Scavenger Hunt plus the Live Studio Tour videos. There was certainly lots to keep us occupied and entertained!

We have some great programs and presenters lined up over the next few months, some on our regular meeting day, some on other days.

Upcoming Guild Programs:

Wednesday, November 17, 7pm: Peter Byrne, "Behind the Seams" Lecture/Trunk Show

December: No program presentation but maybe something organized by the Christmas Committee?

Tuesday, January 11, 7pm: Rose Parr, "Sew Smart: The Ergonomics of Healthy Quilting" Lecture

Wednesday, February 15, 7 pm: Krista Hennebury, "Who Gives a Flying FQ About Accuracy?" Lecture

We also have some exciting workshops lined up. Feel free to check out these presenters' websites to find out more about them and what they offer.

Upcoming Guild Workshops:

Saturday, December 4: Melissa Marginet, Modern Quilting with a Walking Foot (6 hrs)

Program cntd.

Saturday February 5, Sunday, February 6: Peter Byrne, Hover Quilting (two 1/2 days)

Saturday, March 12: Krista Hennebury, Speed Date with Improv (6 hrs)

Signup sheets will be available for these workshops at the in-person meeting on the 17, if that takes place. Otherwise watch your email for workshop launches and registration details.

As always, if you know of presenters, workshop teachers or topics you are interested in, please let the Program Committee know - we welcome your input.

FUNDamentally Circles Workshop

Our first ever virtual workshop was held on October 30th with 14 eager students learning how to freeform piece quarter circle blocks without pins. Brenda Gael Smith of Serendipity Patchwork & Quilting in Sydney Australia gave us 3 hours of FUN and inspiration and showed how freeing it is to ditch the templates and pins and use improv methods to create one-of-a-kind blocks that can be sliced and diced to make even more creative forms.

The virtual format meant each student could work from the comfort of their own space and everyone had a front row seat. (see screen shot photos of workshop below)

Your Program Committee has more exciting virtual workshop opportunities lined up (see above).

Membership

Keep the renewals and new memberships coming in! The Program Committee has some exciting sessions lined up for us and you will want to share in them. We now stand at 96. Registration information is on our website (www.islandquilters.ca) under Membership and with e-transfers and a fillable application form it can be done quickly and efficiently. Not comfortable with that? We still accept cheques payable to the Nanaimo Quilt Guild and forms can be mailed to NQG Membership, P.O. Box 943, Nanaimo, B.C. V9R 5N2. Dues are $30 with $15 added if you want the newsletter mailed.

Not sure if you have renewed or not? The present membership list is now on the website as it stood on October 14th. Any renewals after this date will not yet be listed.

Membership cards have now been printed and some were handed out on October 20 at the curling club parking lot. Others will await you at our first in person meeting.

We would like to welcome the following new members and hope we can all meet them in person very soon to share in their quilting history and experiences: Teresa Bellinger, Daphne Graff, Sheila Redel, Patricia Sayer, Carly Simon and Adrienne Stacey Happy quilting to all!

Quilt Bee

Nothing new to report except to say, start thinking about whether you want to sign up for an in-person quilt bee in January. If we have an in-person Guild meeting in November, I will have a sign up sheet there. Otherwise I will get that info through email. I will let you know the decision. I'm going to Oliver Woods in the next week or so to find out exactly what rules they have in place.

I collected 7 quilts (2 shown here) in the parking lot in October and now have quite a few in storage, about 70 so I am going to call Haven House to see if they are ready to take a few off our hands. Storage locker is getting a little crowded.

Thanks, Janet Knecht and the Quilt Bee Committee

Donation Quilts

Thank you to all the ladies for dropping off their quilts at the curling rink parking lot on October 20, the weather cooperated and we stayed dry. Thirteen quilts were handed in, thanks so much for labels on all of them.

We have had two twin size quilt tops donated by Laurie Webster, which need to be quilted and bound. Please contact us if you are interested in doing this.

If all goes well, we will be able to meet in person the afternoon of November 17. If you attend, you can bring your donation quilts. (If you don't want to attend the meeting, one of us will be by the entry door to accept your quilts.)

If we do not meet in person, we will again be accepting quilts in the curling rink parking lot between 1 and 2 pm on that day. Batting, backing and labels will be available.

Donation Quilts Committee: Lynn Bensten, Sue Creba, Bonnie Eaton, Tracy Irwin, Nadine Lindstrom, Jean Pennington, Arlene Sanders (The Scrappy Bags)

Placemats

Thank you to everyone who turned in placemats on October 20. The weather was quite cooperative, by the time 2 pm rolled around it was actually sunny. Also, as per usual the placemats are all beautiful. I am sure recipients will be very happy to have one adorn their table this Christmas. We had 38 placemats donated to the Guild which brings our tallies up to 223 placemats and 55 tea cozies. This is a very respectable number for giving this Christmas, but I would not be unhappy to receive a few more. Hopefully we will be able to meet in person in November, but if not, I think we will reduce our time in the parking lot to one hour between 1-2 pm as it is likely to be cold. If we do have a November in-person meeting I will be there. I will have the usual batting cut 13" X 19". Again, thank you all.

Your Placemat Committee, Heather, Norma, Maureen

Block of the Month Sew-Along

I hope you enjoyed working on the Halloween Candy block. I got my blocks sewn together, then changed my mind about one of the fabric choices. Reminder to audition fabrics before cutting! That's my tip of the day. Lol. I'm looking forward to adding this block to my Halloween quilt.

This month's block is inspired by the turning of the leaves. We have done a leaf block in the past but I found a neat looking leaf from September 21, 2020 on Marie's Quilt Bee blog spot website <https://rie-quiltbee.blogspot.com/2020/09/the-leaves-are-beginning-to-turn.html>. Marie lives in Pembroke, Ontario. The block is 7 1/2" unfinished. I was lucky to find a number of red 2" strips in my red scraps container so was able to use different fabrics for this block. In my sample I didn't put in a stem as her pattern directed. I followed her directions for making the main leaf point but you can use your favourite technique for that block. Her template, for example, could be used as a paper piecing unit.

Terri received some prizes from Island Sewing Centre in Campbell River so there's a possibility of having a draw for participation. We propose receiving pictures of completed blocks through posting on our facebook page, or email: sarahinstitchesnanaimo@gmail.com (my shaw account is at 98-100% so won't work). Although we will be trying to get back to in person meetings I know some of you won't be able to go to the meetings and I would hate to exclude you from a chance to win. Terri has agreed to mail out prizes to the winner. Also let me know if you would like to go back to a block draw program or just continue with a sew along program. I'll also ask for a show of hands at the in person quilt meeting. The deadline for posting the pictures will be the day before the meetings. I hope this works out as I would love to see your blocks.

Take care, Sarah Beyer, 778-269-2380 cell

2020 and 2021 Challenge

A reminder that if you completed the 2020 challenge, please let Judy or Val know by Wednesday, December 1 (whether we meet in person or by Zoom). These will be voted on at the Christmas meeting. The short challenge for 2022 will be announced at the December meeting.
